- Online Safety Policy
- Preventing Extremism and Radicalisation Policy

B. Introduction

The United Kingdom is a multi-ethnic country. Truro School Prep has a significant number of pupils from multi-ethnic or mixed race backgrounds. It is essential we take steps to educate our pupils about issues related to racism while highlighting the positive cultural value of a diverse ethnic mix from a global perspective.

Truro School will be pro-active in implementing its duties described in the Race Amendment Act 2000 and the Equality Act 2010. The school will seek to promote racial equality and good race relations, and to eliminate racial discrimination.

The school is committed to identifying and removing discriminatory practices and any form of racism or racist behaviour.

C. Aims

The school aims to promote in the widest sense a happy and nurturing environment in which individuals are appreciated and respected; all pupils and staff are expected to further this objective.

Racism is addressed across the curriculum for example in PSHEE, Religious Studies and assemblies

Truro School aims to promote race equality and actively tackle racial discrimination within all areas of school life:

- to challenge racial discrimination, racist behaviour, racist language or harassment, prejudice and stereotyping, however thoughtless or unintentional;
- to make sure that all students and staff are encouraged and supported to achieve their full potential;
- to provide an environment which respects and values diversity and shows consideration for the traditions, cultures and religious practices of people from different racial groups and different geographical regions;
- to prevent direct and indirect, overt and covert discrimination on grounds of race or geographical origin
- to assist in the identification of possible barriers to equality of opportunity for students and staff and to ensure that these barriers are addressed where possible.

D. Definition of Racism

Racism is a form of bullying. It can be both (a) institutional and (b) personal, overt or subtle, intentional or unintentional.

a. Institutional racism:

- The Stephen Lawrence Inquiry Report defined this as: 'The collective failure of an organisation to provide an appropriate and professional service to people because of their colour, culture or ethnic origin. It can be seen or detected in processes, attitudes and behaviour which amount to discrimination through unwitting prejudice, ignorance, thoughtlessness and racist stereotyping which disadvantage minority ethnic people.'
- When a child is subject to racist bullying or harassment, their behaviour and attainment are likely to be affected; if the behaviour is treated in isolation without taking into consideration the issues and effects of racism, this can be described as institutional racism. The racist element must be explicitly recognised and dealt with.
- This type of racism is also covert and indirect and therefore can be difficult to identify and address. It is often evident in the assumptions, beliefs and values that affect people's instinctive responses. It can be demonstrated subconsciously in subtle ways and Truro School recognises the need consciously to challenge such attitudes.

b. Personal racism:

This is often direct and identifiable and can be manifested through harassment and offensive behaviour in the following ways:

- Physical assault against a person or group due to their colour, ethnicity, geographical origin or culture;
- Derogatory name calling, insults, ridiculing and racist jokes;
- Racist graffiti;
- Provocative behaviour such as wearing racist badges or insignia;
- Verbal abuse and threats;
- Incitement of others to behave in a racist way;

- Racist comments within the context of lessons.

E. Accountability and Responsibility

The Board of Governors, with the assistance of the Head and members of staff, is responsible for ensuring that the school meets its commitments under its Anti-Racism Policy. In addition, they will provide any necessary help to staff to keep up to date with any changes in race relations legislation.

- The Head will ensure that all staff are aware of their responsibilities and are given the support to exercise this responsibility.
- All racist incidents that are reported will need to be investigated and recorded.
- All staff are required to promote racial equality and good race relations.
- Staff are expected not to discriminate on racial grounds and are expected to attend training or to read information provided by the Head about any changes to relevant legislation.
- Staff are expected always to challenge racist and geographically-biased attitudes and behaviour.
- Staff are also expected to be aware of the need to report suspicions of racism to the Head or the Pastoral Care Coordinator.
- Where appropriate the School will be prepared to contact the police if a racial crime has been committed.

F. Action by the School when Racism is Suspected or Reported

Alleged incidents of racism should be investigated in line with our Behaviour Policy.

If an incidence of racism is proven, the Pastoral Care Coordinator who is the Designated Safeguarding Lead will need to be informed. The Pastoral Care Coordinator will then decide the appropriate sanction.

Possible disciplinary action by the school

- An official warning after a proper apology has been made and written in a lunchtime detention;
- A Head of Prep detention;
- Exclusion from certain areas of school premises and life (such as co-curricular activities);
- In serious cases or where there is repeated racism, suspension from the school for a fixed term;
- Continued racist behaviour will be incompatible with staying at the school and permanent expulsion may be used in such cases.

It is important that the victim of the racist incident is made to feel satisfied with the outcome of any disciplinary measures taken. It is also important to remember that anyone who has been a victim of a racist incident has the legal right to report it as a crime to the police.

See the school's Anti-Bullying Policy for further details about our response to bullying in general.

H. Implementing and Reviewing the Anti-Racism Policy

- New staff will be introduced to the policy during their induction.
- There will be a formal review of the policy every year and any necessary amendments circulated to staff and pupils.
- Pupils will be made aware of the policy as part of the Anti-Bullying Policy in the PSHEE programme of delivery.
